

#ADAN20

United Pathways

Save the date

14th ADAN
Symposium
2020

The Aboriginal Drug & Alcohol Network (ADAN) of NSW would like to invite you to our 14th ADAN Symposium in 2020. Our focus has and will always be on building the capacity and strengthening networks between the Aboriginal Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) workforce. In working together and supporting each other we are able to encourage optimal health outcomes for Aboriginal people in NSW. For this reason, this year's theme is "United Pathways" acknowledging the importance of referral pathways and also developing relationships within the sector.

Date

3–5 March 2020

Venue

BreakFree, Aanuka Beach Resort
11 Firman Drive, Coffs Harbour NSW 2450

Registrations open

13 September 2019

www.eventbrite.com.au/e/14th-adan-symposium-2020-tickets-64153403557

Call for abstracts

Submissions open 13 September 2019

The ADAN Leadership Group is calling for abstracts to come and showcase your initiatives and share your knowledge. Please complete the below form to be considered:

bit.ly/2PbBXkx

Submissions close 5:00pm, 30 November 2019

Award nominations

Nominations open 13 September 2019

bit.ly/31Xhi58

Awards include:

- Male AOD Worker of the Year
- Female AOD Worker of the Year
- AOD Program of the Year
- James Ward 'Outstanding Worker of the Year'

Nominations close 5:00pm, 30 November 2019

Keynote speakers

To be advised.

For further information or enquiries

Sophie Scobie | Practice Support Officer
Aboriginal Health and Medical Research Council of NSW
e adan@ahmrc.org.au
t call (02) 9212 4777

Aboriginal Health & Medical Research Council of NSW

ADAN
Aboriginal Drug &
Alcohol Network of NSW